

MA Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)

The Master of Arts in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) degree program at Notre Dame de Namur University (NDNU) is an excellent online program for individuals around the nation and the world who are searching for a values-based education in TESOL that reflects the latest advances in the field and in the use of technology. The TESOL program trains individuals to promote language learning among various immigrant populations, their children, and other underserved populations in the United States and in countries around the world. The program welcomes current and future educators to acquire advanced degrees in the field of TESOL in the global classroom while having the opportunity to share what they learn in their communities as they progress.

- Current and future educators earn your MA Teaching English to Speakers Other Languages (TESOL)
- Year-round program admits students fall, spring, and summer semesters
- 30-unit program taught in asynchronous 8-week intensive modules
- Ideal for US and international students
- Personalized support from application to graduation
- Flexibility to plan and advance learning at your convenience
- Teach English in US and internationally at K-12 schools; colleges/universities; community adult education; English Language School programs; vocational programs; businesses; government; design curriculum, games, or apps for publishers and online companies
- Values-based education reflects latest advances in the field and in the use of technology
- Learn to promote language learning among immigrant populations, their children, and other underserved population's in the US and around the world
- Partnerships with UC San Diego, UC Santa Cruz Extension, and Via Lingua; TESOL Certificate graduates transfer in certificate program units.
- Teachers transfer in credential program units not applied to graduate degree
- Catholic School Teacher Scholarship

Benefits of the MA TESOL Program

- Personalized support from application to graduation with individualized advising to meet the needs of today's adult students
- GRE not required
- Year round program admits students fall, spring, and summer semesters
- Asynchronous intensive 8-week courses are designed for both domestic and international students
- Faculty are active TESOL instructors who bring their daily experience and expertise into course instruction and assignments.
- Graduate level TESOL, TEFL, ESL, and teaching credential units with a B- or better, completed within the past 7 years old, and not applied to another degree may be transferred in to the program with approval of Program Director.
- MA TESOL degree prepares you to teach in the US and abroad.
- Develop as a professional TESOL practitioner with expertise in three key areas: conceptual knowledge, theoretical knowledge, and application skills.

Students may apply and be admitted to the Master of Arts in Teaching English to Speakers of other Languages (TESOL) program in the fall, spring, or summer

» Apply at ndnu.edu/admissions/graduate-apply/

GRADUATE PROGRAMS FOR BUSY ADULTS