

Prof. Francois Xavier Lucas – Professor, Université Paris, Pantheon Sorbonne

Professor at the Sorbonne Law School (since 2004) where he teaches corporate law and Bankruptcy law, François-Xavier Lucas is the director of the Institute of Judicial Studies of the Paris 1 University, which prepares, every year, 4000 students for the Paris Bar exam and the Judicial Services Examination

He heads, in the research center "Centre de droit de la dette" (Insolvency Law Institute) of the Sorbonne Law School, the department dedicated to insolvency law. It is in this context that he has created a Master's degree "Administration and liquidation of distressed companies", which trains every year a promotion of lawyers specializing in this field, as well as a Degree in Bankruptcy Law, which offers training to judges specializing in bankruptcy law. He is also the director of the Master degree in Business Law and Tax Law and of the Master degree Franco-Moroccan Business Law at the EUROMED University of Fez (Morocco)

