Course Descriptions

Academic & Writing Skills

Academic Competence in the U.S. University I
This 1-unit workshop is designed to orient the international student to the competitive university system in the United States. Specifically, the workshop addresses topics which the international student may be unfamiliar with, including common formats for source citation, typical question types on exams and other tools used for continuous assessments, and protocols for interacting with professors during office hours. Note: This course is not offered in the summer quarter.

Academic Writing
This course is designed for advanced international students and researchers who are proficient in English but need to upgrade their writing skills. Tailored to individual needs, participants will improve their accuracy in writing mechanics, in all areas of grammar, and in the essentials of effective writing style and organization. Lectures and workshops provide assistance in writing summaries, abstracts, technical reports, and academic papers.

Advanced Topics in Academic Writing
This short course will focus on the essential characteristics of concise, coherent writing style in academic English: a strong controlling idea; unity of thought; clear, relevant support; and fluid transitions. This course is intended for non-native speakers who would benefit from review of the most important techniques in producing successful writing for academic purposes.

Scientific & Technical Writing for Non-native English Speakers
Designed primarily for non-native speakers with advanced English proficiency, this course covers essential skills for writing well in scientific or technical settings. The specific styles and usage conventions of various scientific fields will be covered. There will be a major focus on clarity and strength of expression and idea development, as well as instruction on editing to eliminate problems with grammar and usage.

Topics in Advanced English Structure
Learn about complex structures in idiomatic written English, which will greatly aid non-native speakers of English in acquiring a clearer, more sophisticated and idiomatic writing style for academic discourse. Topics in each course offering will include two of the following, at the discretion of the instructor: noun complements, relative clauses, adverb clauses, adjective clauses, causative structures, hyphenated adjectives, possessives and compound nouns, subjunctive structures, and “it” clefts. Note: This course is only offered in the fall quarter.

Topics in Writing Mechanics
This short course will focus on correcting the most common punctuation errors in English writing. When to use or not to use commas, semi-colons, apostrophes, hyphens, dashes, capital letters, and many others will be covered. This course is intended for non-native speakers who would benefit from review and instruction about some of the most frequent errors in English punctuation and mechanics. Note: This course is only offered in the spring quarter.
Business English Skills

Business Writing for Non-native English Speakers
This course is designed for non-native English speakers who need to develop and improve their writing skills to perform more effectively in the workplace. Participants learn the correct rules of writing, how to choose the right word or expression, and formal and informal styles. Topics include business language, style, format, tone, and presentation graphics, including effective techniques for memos, letters, solicitations, and reports. Writing competency is acquired for technical, managerial, and marketing purposes. On-the-job examples are used to build writing skills and professional abilities.

Negotiation and Debate: ESL Seminar
Develop effective negotiation and debate skills in both causal and formal environments. Students will learn the skills necessary to give their opinions and support them with facts and research. They will be expected to listen to their classmates as they present their arguments and provide both written and oral feedback on the debates they hear. This course will assist students in improving their ability to listen, think critically, negotiate, and respond quickly to arguments and ideas.

Conversation & Speaking Skills

Advanced Conversation Improvement
This course is designed to increase spoken fluency and accuracy in English, and enable students to express themselves more precisely in conversation with native and non-native speakers, whether in an academic or professional setting or out on the golf course. Designed for advanced non-native English speakers, the course emphasizes improvement in overall conversational fluency in an active learning environment. Participation in this course requires an advanced level of listening and speaking skills in English, as well as strong reading skills. Students will be assessed on their proficiency level on the first day of the class.

Conversation Improvement
This course will increase student’s confidence and comfort level when speaking English with both native and non-native speakers. This course is specifically designed for individuals whose English proficiency is at an intermediate level. Through constant practice, using dialogues and situational role-playing, the instructor identifies strategies and specific conversational techniques to help each student improve his or her spoken English. Students learn in a lively, fun classroom environment in which the overall emphasis is placed on building confidence in conversing In English while further developing their speaking and listening skills.

Conversational Skills – ESL Fluency Seminar
This course will improve students’ conversation skills with native and non-native English speakers. From weeks 3-8, students will discuss topics in small groups with UC San Diego students and local community members who function as Cultural Ambassadors, under the guidance of the teacher.
Effective Oral Presentation
This course addresses oral communication problems encountered by non-native speakers in such formal academic and professional settings as conferences, seminars, meetings, and classrooms. Designed for international graduate students, postdoctoral researchers, new faculty members, and business professionals, the course emphasizes the importance of clear pronunciation, precise vocabulary, appropriate format, and group management skills. Extensive pronunciation exercises are included, along with many opportunities for participants to practice their presentation skills.

Grammar & Vocabulary Skills

Grammar & Editing I
This course is designed for advanced non-native English speakers who depend on English grammar in written communications and thus need to refine their knowledge of grammar. Participants will review grammar points necessary in correcting the most common grammar problems in non-native writing such as knowing the correct usage of the present perfect vs. simple past, prepositions, articles, punctuation, and more. Note: The Grammar & Editing I and II courses can be taken in any order.

Grammar & Editing II
This course is designed for advanced non-native English speakers. Participants will review grammar points necessary in identifying and correcting the most common grammar problems in non-native writing, such as knowing the correct usage of conjunctions, prepositions, punctuation, usage and more. Participants will also choose some of the grammar points to be studied in this course. Participants will learn how to recognize and correct their own grammar errors and also learn how to find the right answers to specific, recurring grammar questions. Note: The Grammar & Editing I and II courses can be taken in any order.

Grammar & Vocabulary Building
In this course, advanced non-native English students will refine their knowledge of English grammar and increase their vocabulary. Extensive contextualized practice at the sentence level is used to build grammatical competence. Various exercises are used to increase vocabulary and vocabulary retention.

Pronunciation & Fluency Skills

Accent Modification Seminar
This one-day, 3-hour seminar will provide participants with many keys to speaking English more accurately and smoothly. By the end of this seminar, students will understand the importance of pausing, stress, linking, and pitch to be more easily understood by a native-speaker. Additionally, students will learn quick tips on reducing accent and will be given resources for self-study or further improvement.

American Idioms & Slang for Fluency I
This 4-week online course is designed for non-native speakers of English who want to become more proficient in communicating with native speakers of English. Students will master 48 special expressions through individual interaction with and personal guidance from an expert instructor of UC San Diego’s
English Language Institute. Activities will include voice recordings of students’ oral production of idioms, sentence writing, and other activities. Note: The American Idioms & Slang for Fluency I and II courses can be taken in any order.

American Idioms & Slang for Fluency II
Students will master 48 special expressions through individual interaction with and personal guidance from an expert instructor of UC San Diego’s English Language Institute. Activities will include voice recordings of students’ oral production of idioms, sentence writing, and other activities. Note: The American Idioms & Slang for Fluency I and II courses can be taken in any order.

Advanced Pronunciation & Fluency
This course is designed for students who are familiar with the English sound system and their own pronunciation problems. Instruction will focus on expanding the students’ skills in correctly applying English patterns of stress, intonation, linking, and reductions. Pronunciation of problematic sounds will also be integrated into class exercises and activities. This course is for the non-native speaker who wants to know what it takes to “sound American.”

Pronunciation & Fluency
This course is ideal for the student who wants to be more easily understood in everyday conversation and workplace situations. The instructor will identify the students’ particular pronunciation difficulties and provide extensive exercises that target each student’s needs. Participants will learn to pronounce words in a manner that is easier for native speakers to understand. By the end of the course, students will have gained an awareness of their problem sounds, learned how to pronounce those sounds accurately and clearly, and learned how to continue refining their speech while strengthening overall confidence in speaking.

Pronunciation and Fluency: ESL Seminar
This course will help students speak English more clearly and fluently. It will include instruction and practice on sounds, sound combination, intonation, and other important areas of pronunciation. Students will learn strategies for improving their own pronunciation and how to identify their own pronunciation problems.

Medical English Skills

Medical English I
This online course focuses on the vocabulary and communication associated with the respiratory, musculoskeletal, and endocrine systems. It is designed for non-native speakers of English in the medical and healthcare professions who need to use English for both work and professional studies. Coursework includes language practice pertaining to anatomy and physiology, common pathologies, and role-plays in clinical settings. Note: The online Medical English courses can be taken in any order.

Medical English II
This online course focuses on the vocabulary and communication associated with the skin, lymphatic/hematic, and urinary systems. It is designed for non-native speakers of English in the medical and healthcare professions who need to use English for both work and professional studies. Coursework includes language practice pertaining to anatomy and physiology, common pathologies, and role-plays in clinical settings. Note: The online Medical English courses can be taken in any order.
Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Whom are these classes designed for?
These English courses are intended for non-native speakers who need to refine their linguistic skills, especially fluency. Some courses are helpful to academics (UC San Diego graduate students, researchers, staff, etc.) and to people in scientific settings. Other courses are designed to improve the language skills of professionals and those in the American workplace.

What level are the classes?
Our classes are for the intermediate to advanced-level non-native English speaker. At this time, we do not have any classes for beginner-level students.

How many classes can I take?
Students can choose to take as many or as few classes as they want. Classes listed as I and II can be taken in any order.

Will I receive a certificate after completing these courses?
These are individual, a-la-carte courses. Students will not receive a certificate for completing any courses. However, all classes are recorded on a student’s UC San Diego Extension transcript and a student can order a transcript as confirmation of completing and passing a course. Additionally, the Program Manager can also provide a Letter of Completion if requested by the student.

Will I have to take a language placement exam?
No, at this time our courses do not require that you complete a language proficiency exam before enrolling.

Do I have to take the classes for a grade?
No, you do not. The choice is entirely yours! Students can choose to take the class for a letter grade (A, B, C…etc.), pass/no pass, or not for credit. With “letter grade” and “pass/no pass”, students will still receive credit for the course on their UC San Diego Extension transcript. With “not for credit” students will not receive credit on their transcript.

How long are the classes?
Some classes are as short as 4 weeks and others are as long as 9-10 weeks. The number of class meetings varies by class. We have classes that meet once, twice, and three times per week. Classes usually meet for 3 hours per week.

How much do classes cost?
Our classes range in price from $150 to $550. Class prices vary depending on length and credit hours. The cost of the class covers the entire date range, from the first class to the last class. Course fees do not include textbooks, parking, or transportation costs.
Are there any discounts available?
UC San Diego Extension offers a 10 percent discount, up to $50 per quarter, on eligible courses to eligible students. The following UC San Diego-affiliated persons are eligible to receive the discount:
- UC San Diego fulltime matriculated students
- UC San Diego faculty and their spouse or domestic partner (this includes post-doctoral appointments)
- UC San Diego career status staff and their spouse or domestic partner (casual or contract employees are not eligible)
- UC alumni
- Osher Lifelong Learning Institute members
