

REFUGEE EDUCATOR FOUNDATIONS OF PRACTICE SUMMER INSTITUTE

Designed by and for educators, the REFP Summer Institute is a two-part online course embedded within a supportive virtual community of practice that will provide you with rich learning opportunities and immediately useful resources and methods to support refugee/immigrant learners.

"I have always loved teaching ELs and refugees, but I am even more inspired and dedicated to educating them [after taking this course]." - 2020 participant

AS A PARTICIPANT, YOU WILL WALK AWAY WITH:

- renewed energy
- resources & information
- instructional methods & curricular materials
- a professional network from around the country

COURSE TOPICS INCLUDE:

Part 1

- Knowing our Students
- Culturally Relevant & Sustaining Pedagogies
- SEL and Trauma-Informed Practices

Part 2

- Developing Curriculum & Assessments
- Designing for Learning
- Envisioning Next Steps

"Take this course. It will provide you with the background information, strategies, tools and techniques to better serve your refugee student populations."

- 2020 participant

Part 1

DEEPENING CONNECTIONS AND BUILDING CONDITIONS FOR LEARNING

Cohort 1 June 7 - July 2, 2021

Cohort 2 June 21 - July 16, 2021

Part 2

DESIGNING RESPONSIVE TEACHING AND LEARNING CURRICULUM AND METHODOLOGIES

Cohort 1 July 12 - August 6, 2021

Cohort 2 July 26 - August 20, 2021

COST:

- $150/part; $300/full course (10% discount for teams of 5 or more)

CLOCK HOURS & CEU/CREDIT OPTIONS (please check with your district HR about requirements/restrictions):

Part 1

- 25 clock hours/CEUs
- Optional: 2.5 QTR credits available through UCSD Extension Program (fee: $137.50)

Part 2

- 20 clock hours/CEUs
- Optional: 2 QTR credits available through UCSD Extension Program (fee: $110)

"I have become more articulate in the way I advocate for students. I feel I have better resources and more grounded positions. I now have the tools to make points in a way that more people can understand and follow. It makes me far more effective at my work."

- 2020 participant

QUESTIONS?

For general inquiries, please contact rea.support@careyinstitute.org or visit our website.

For more specific inquiries about invoicing or unique professional development needs, contact Julie Kasper, REA Program Manager, at jkasper@careyinstitute.org.

REGISTER NOW!

CLICK HERE
TO ENROLL

or visit <https://bit.ly/3kPvM1B>