Best Methods in Teaching Speaking Skills

Learn the best methods for getting ESL and EFL students to speak English and tasks that encourage meaningful interaction in this TELF certificate course. This class will address types and idiosyncrasies of the spoken language, and micro skills of speaking that are factors in the oral code. Review current issues in teaching oral communication by analyzing conversational discourse, pronunciation, and affective factors. This course will suggest fluency and accuracy activities that can be used in and out of the classroom. Learn factors that hamper improved speaking skills for ESL and EFL learners.

Teaching Writing for Academic and Professional Purposes

Learn about discourse features of successful writing in English, in particular for academic and professional communication in the U.S. and around the world. The following are specific to good written English and are often not found in the same ways in the writing of other languages: uses of reference, substitution, ellipsis, conjunction, lexical cohesion. This class will instruct you on the rhetorical and formal conventions of good writing, and the most effective ways to share that knowledge with your ESL and EFL students.

Theories and Methods of Language Teaching and Learning

Become acquainted with the most generally accepted theoretical and methodological models of English language teaching and learning. This practical class offers you pedagogical ideas on how to meet the specific needs of various: ages, proficiency levels, purposes, skills, and contexts. You will build a repertoire of ESL and EFL classroom activities firmly embedded with well-established principles of language acquisition in a step-by-step approach to interactive language teaching. Focus on: integration of skills, learner styles and strategies and preferences, multiple intelligences, and lesson design.
Theory and Methods of Reading Instruction
In this course, you will receive an overview of various theoretical approaches as they apply to reading in the ESL and EFL classroom, relevant areas of research in foreign language reading, and connection of theory and research to the teaching and learning of reading. You will be provided with a thorough understanding of the reading process and the ways in which to build and assess reading skills, particularly academic and professional material. There will be an emphasis in how to best teach vocabulary and idioms through reading in an ESL and EFL context.
