

Reading Certificate Program

Frequently Asked Questions

I heard the Reading Certificate program will be changing. Is this true? When will these changes take effect?

All Reading Certificate programs are changing to meet new program standards required by CCTC. Each school has different dates they plan on implementing the new standards, but all schools must implement the changes by Fall 2012. The new program will be called the Reading and Literacy Authorization on CCTC teaching credentials and the Reading Instruction program for the UCSD certificate. This website now contains detailed program information.

How do I begin the Reading Instruction application process?

Obtain and complete a Reading Certificate application packet from UCSD Education Extension at uneduc@ucsd.edu. This application packet has the guidelines for each type of candidate. Please follow the guidelines that are appropriate for the route that best suits your goals.

Must I submit my application packet to UCSD Education Extension prior to enrolling and completing the Reading Instruction courses?

It is highly recommended that you apply to the program before beginning coursework. Enrollment in a course does not constitute admission to the program.

Your completion requirements are based upon when you are admitted to the program, not when you begin taking coursework.

May I take a Reading Instruction course(s) for professional growth or personal interest purposes without applying for the certificate?

Yes. All of the individual courses are open enrollment. You may register online at extension.ucsd.edu/education or directly through Student Services at (858) 534-3400.

Must I take the Reading Courses for a letter grade?

We recommended that all students take the coursework for a letter grade. The letter grade will be utilized to verify the candidate has completed all the required coursework with a grade of "C" or better. A grade of "C-" or lower is not equivalent to a grade of "C" or better.

Am I eligible for the UCSD Reading Instruction program?

Specific courses may require prerequisites. Please contact the Education Office at unexeduc@ucsd.edu prior to registering for any other courses.

Am I eligible to apply for the CCTC - Reading Certificate if I am not currently a classroom teacher?

Yes, as long as you have a valid California teaching credential and three years of full-time classroom teaching experience. The experience can be from any period that the applicant held a valid teaching credential (not including student/internship teaching, substitute teaching, or teaching under an emergency permit). This experience may also be gained outside of California. (CCTC leaflet CL-812, <http://www.ctc.ca.gov/credentials/leaflets/cl812.pdf>)

Your certificate application must be filed by UCSD Education Extension with our formal recommendation on your behalf. Applications filed directly to CCTC without formal recommendation will be returned to the individual.

How do I request my CCTC recommendation for the Reading Certificate program?

You must submit a Request to Recommend form. This form contains all of the information and paperwork necessary to obtain a formal recommendation by UCSD Education Extension for your clear California credential. This form is available upon request at unexeduc@ucsd.edu

Does UCSD Education Extension provide a job placement or career counseling service for its Reading Certificate holders?

No. School district job assignments and requirements change on a continuous basis. While UCSD Education Extension works closely with school districts, we do not represent them nor are we qualified to discuss a district's job hiring policies or procedures. UCSD Education Extension suggests that you contact directly the school or school district for which you are interested in working. In addition, numerous schools and school districts utilize the Ed Join website for recruiting instructors.
